

July 2010

The Mössbauer Effect Data Center (MEDC) announces three new options to support the Center and receive services.

1. Individual Affiliate. Support MEDC as an Individual Affiliate for $200 (abroad), ¥1,400 (domestic) and receive:

- One-year subscription to the Mössbauer Spectroscopy Newsletter (published as a part of the MERDJ), delivered in PDF format via e-mail
- Individual Affiliates will be included in the Affiliate list published on our Web site and annually in the December issue of the MERDJ

---

2. Institutional Affiliate. Your institution can support MEDC as an Institutional Affiliate for $500 (abroad), ¥3,500 (domestic) and receive:

- Five (5) Individual Affiliations for its researchers and/or employees
- Each person designated as an Individual Affiliate by the Institutional Affiliate will receive the Newsletter as described above
- Institutional Affiliates will be included on our Affiliate list published on our Web site and annually in the December issue of the MERDJ, with the designated Individual Affiliates listed below the Institutional Affiliate

3. Institutional Sponsor. Your institution can support MEDC as an Institutional Sponsor for $1,500 (abroad), ¥10,500 (domestic) and receive:

- A full annual subscription to the MERDJ, with Annual Index
- Full access to our Web-Access Database for one year
- The right to name an individual from their institution to become a member of MEDC's International Advisory Board for the volume year in which their sponsorship occurs
- Institutional Sponsors will be included on the masthead of the MERDJ, which is published in each issue
- Five (5) Individual Affiliations for its researchers and/or employees
- Each person designated as an Individual Affiliate by the Institutional Affiliate will receive the Newsletter as described above

Your support of the Mössbauer Effect Data Center will enable us to continue our work to support and fully develop the international Mössbauer community, update our database, create innovative tools and resources, and reach a more global audience – all toward the goal of ensuring that scientific knowledge relating to the Mössbauer effect is available to all scientists, students, and research groups.

We thank you for considering these options
